Bachelor of Arts Degree—Through Colorado University Program 2 (120 credit hours)

Upon acceptance into the B.A. program and before ordering the first course, the applicant/student must turn in copies of Ministerial Credentials (if obtained), Degrees or highest level of education, resume that briefly states educational, occupational and spiritual history, and fill out an application as to why applicant/student want to become a Licensed and/or Certified member of the NCCA. All students must show evidence of Christian leadership experience or calling of God into a Ministry of Christian Counseling. Applicant/student will be required to commit to continuing his/her education through N.C.C.A. until ultimately receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Christian Counseling. In order to obtain a B.A. in Christian Counseling, the individual must do the following:

Complete all of the requirements listed below. Upon completion of Phase I, the student will know how to set up and effectively manage a highly successful and God-blessed counseling ministry thus eliminating the number one reason students fail. Also, the student will have earned a Certification as a Temperament Counselor. Phase II builds upon Phase I by giving the student more knowledge and experience using the Temperament Model of Counseling and becoming a Commissioned Minister of Counseling, if not ordained already. This model is 95% successful, in the counseling setting, by helping individuals to overcome their problems. At the end of this phase, the student will have earned a Licensure as a Temperament Counselor. Each student must be Ordained or become a Commissioned Minister (through Abundant Life Ministries) before being awarded Licensed Clinical Pastoral Counselor Licensure. Phase III requires the completion of a 500 question open-book exam on Biblical Knowledge and 6 advanced courses in the Counseling Tract of the student counselor's choice (see #4 below). These courses enables the student to have a specialty area of expertise plus two additional courses in one of the following areas: Marriage and Family Counseling, Child and Adolescent Therapy, Temperament Therapy, Sexual Therapy, Death and Grief Therapy, Cognitive Therapy and Ethics, Crisis and Abuse Therapy, or Temperament Case Studies.
